Table Injury; Influenza (Flu) Vaccine;
Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine
Administration (SIRVA)

Jeffrey S. Pop, Jeffrey S. Pop & Associates, Beverly Hills, CA, for petitioner.

Sarah Black Rifkin, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On August 27, 2019, Michelle Schneider filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) after receiving an influenza (flu) vaccination on September 13, 2016. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 2, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Respondent concluded that compensation was appropriate because Petitioner meets the criteria for a presumed SIRVA, as defined by the Vaccine Injury Table. Id. at 8.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Specifically, Respondent found that “[P]etitioner had no history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction in her left shoulder; her pain occurred within 48 hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; her pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality was identified to explain her symptoms. In addition, given the medical records outlined above, the statutory six month sequela requirement has been satisfied. Therefore, based on the record as it now stands, [P]etitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act.” Id. Respondent further agrees that the scope of damages to be awarded are limited to petitioner’s left-sided SIRVA and its resulting sequelae only. Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
